

THE PIOB WELCOMES EMILY FITTS AS NEW CHAIR OF THE MONITORING GROUP

Madrid, 13 March, 2026

“We look forward to working with Emily in her new role, building on the work of her predecessor, Ryan Wolfe,” said Tshego Modise, Chair of the PIOB. “Emily’s leadership comes at an important time, as collective efforts are being made to strengthen the standard-setting system.

As the global independent oversight body which makes appointments to and oversees the international standard-setting boards, the PIOB remains committed to supporting the Monitoring Group’s objectives to ensure that the standard-setting system operates in the public interest with transparency, independence, and accountability”.
